Hi Joe and Nicole,

I wanted to memorialize an incident that took place today.

- At approximately 1:10pm Tiffany walked into my office very upset, shaking and with tears in her eyes.
- Tiffany states that she was in the room with Dr. Edelman and Dr. Edelman asked where the wipes were
- Tiffany replies in the cabinet, we want to keep them from patients and need to keep the tops closed (apparently Dr. Edelman likes to leave the tops open)
- Dr. Edelman, according to Tiffany stated to her "I need my wipes, I don't know where you have been or who you have touched"
- Tiffany did not reply to the statement and stormed out of the room, into my office.
- Tiffany left the suite to take a breather and about 15 min later she was back in my office still shaken up
- Tiffany states that she was very much offended by Dr. Edelman statements and her overall rudeness that she encounters everyday
- I asked Tiffany if she needed more time she said yes and she left my office
- About 20 min later she came back and stated that she had spoken to Claudia Rose
- I asked her if she was ok in finishing the day she asked if she could go home.
- I sent Tiffany home for the day.
- I had gotten Jessica to cover Dr. Edelman and informed Dr. Edelman that Tiffany had to leave, she said ok
- Later Dr. Edelman came to my office to inquiry why Tiffany left. She asked if she was sick and I replied no, it was personal, she was bothered by this answer
- I also informed Dr. Edelman that I had gotten coverage for her from 4-8, but the MA might not be familiar with all the special testing she normally orders
- Dr. Edelman was ok with sending patients out for labs if need be

Thank you,
